

Activity No:12

Name of The Programme:

Sisterhood Unveiled: Rakshya Bandhan for Gender Sensitization

August 30, 2023

CKB Commerce College NSS Unit

Description of the Activity:

The NSS unit of CKB Commerce College organized a meaningful celebration of Rakshabandhan, centered around fostering Gender Sensitization and Well-being. The event sought to create a bond within the college community while addressing a crucial aspect of women's health.

The highlight of the celebration was the distribution of sanitary napkins. This initiative aimed at addressing menstrual hygiene needs, contributing significantly to the overall health and comfort of the female participants. The distribution was carried out with dignity and sensitivity, aligning with the NSS unit's commitment to holistic well-being.

To deepen understanding and awareness, the event included interactive sessions.

This event stands as a testament to the NSS unit's dedication to not only celebrate cultural traditions but also actively contribute to the health and awareness of its members, fostering a more informed and supportive college community.
